

Boy's Market to Counsel Junior Achievement Firm

Boy's Markets will join the Miller of Baldwin Hills, Jim 1965-66 Junior Achievement program in the southwest district as a counseling firm, it was announced today by George Fitzpatrick, executive vice president of the firm. Junior Achievement is a national program in which high school students learn the basic principles of the American free enterprise system by owning and operating their own miniature corporations under the guidance of adult advisers from prominent businesses in the district.

Lou Melillo, director of operations for Boy's Markets, will serve as the company's Junior Achievement coordinator. Serving as advisers to the JA company will be: Sam

American to Sponsor Conservation Program

An extensive public service campaign designed to quicken interest in the nation's scenic beauty and in conservation programs will be presented by American Savings July 1 through 12.

A handsome portfolio containing over-size photographs by the famous artist-photographer Ansel Adams will be given to all visitors to the American Savings branch at 205 S. Pacific Ave., Redondo Beach, during the 12 days, announced Manager Henry Fusco. It will also be available at the Manhattan Beach branch at 1130 Manhattan Ave., and the South Bay Center branch at 1959 Kingsdale Ave.

In addition, visitors to the branch will have an opportunity to win free weekend accommodations for two at Yosemite Park. The prize is being offered by Yosemite Park and Curry Co. so that residents in each of the 17 communities in which American Savings maintains offices can personally sample one of California's magnificent parks.

"The Adams photos, the Yosemite trip, and other materials to be distributed during the reinvestment period all point to the nation's scenic wonders and how we can preserve them," Fusco said.

RECIPIENT of three Guggenheim Fellowships, photographer for the United States Department of the Interior, and author or illustrator of more than 20 books, Ansel Adams has been acclaimed one of the great photographers of our time. Dedicating himself to "pure" photography, he has given one-man shows and has participated in photographic group exhibitions in leading museums in this country and abroad.

The portfolio containing the Adams photographs will feature messages from Governor Brown and Secretary of the Interior Udall.
